III.

The admission fee shall be two dollars, which shall accompany the application, and shall entitle the comrade to one Grand Army Badge, one copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic, and one copy of these By-Laws.

IV.

The dues shall be one dollar ($1.00) per quarter, payable in advance in January, April, July and October. Comrades joining during the quarter shall pay from the first of the month in which they join to the end of the quarter.

VI.

The Relief Committee shall consist of the Chaplain, the Surgeon and the Comrade; to be appointed by the Post Commander at the first regular meeting in January of each year. All applications for relief or charity must be referred to this Committee, which will promptly investigate the same and report thereon at the next meeting of the Post. It may expend in any one case, between meetings of the Post, a sum not exceeding five dollars ($5.00), and the Adjutant is required to draw orders on the Quartermaster payable to the Committee to meet such expenditures.

VII.

A Finance Committee of three shall be appointed by the Post Commander at the first regular meeting in January of each year, who will audit the accounts of the Quartermaster, exercise a supervision over the receipts and expenditures of the Post and submit a report at least semi-annually, in January and July of its condition.

VIII.

A Memorial Committee of five shall be appointed by the Post Commander at the first regular meeting in January of each year, who will make arrangements for the holding of proper services before and on "Memorial Day," and the decoration of the graves of our fallen comrades in the National Cemetery at Marietta, Ga., and such other places as may be designated.

IX.

Ten per cent. of the gross receipts of the Post shall be donated to the Relief Fund named in Chapter v, Article xii of the Rules and Regulations, the Quartermaster to transfer to such Fund such amounts from the General Fund semi-annually.

X.

Expenditures outside the current necessary expenses of the Post shall not be made without the approval of the Post at a regular meeting.

XI.

XII.

The Adjutant shall receive thirty dollars ($30.00) per annum for his services.

XIII.

The rules of order of the National Encampment are adopted for this Post, so far as applicable.

Grand Army of the Republic.

Extracts from the Rules and Regulations

CHAPTER I. ARTICLE II.

OBJECTS.

The objects to be accomplished by this organization are as follows:—

1. To preserve and strengthen those kind and fraternal feelings which bind together the soldiers, sailors and marines who united to suppress the late Rebellion and to perpetuate the memory and history of the dead.

2. To assist such former comrades in arms as need help and protection, and to extend needful aid to the widows and orphans of those who have fallen.

3. To maintain true allegiance to the United States of America, based upon a paramount respect for, and fidelity to its Constitution and Laws; to discountenance whatever tends to weaken loyalty, incites to insurrection, treason or rebellion or in any manner impairs the efficiency and permanency of our free institutions; and to encourage the spread of universal liberty, equal rights and justice to all men.

CHAPTER I. ARTICLE IV.

ELIGIBILITY TO MEMBERSHIP.

Soldiers and Sailors of the United States Army, Navy or Marine Corps, who served between April 12th, 1861, and April 9th, 1865, in the war for the suppression of the Rebellion, and those having been honorably discharged therefrom after such service, and of such State regiments as were called into active service and subject to the orders of U. S. General Officers, between the dates mentioned, shall be eligible to membership in the Grand Army of the Republic. No person shall be eligible to membership who has at any time borne arms against the United States.

CHAPTER V. ARTICLE XI.

No officer or comrade of the Grand Army of the Republic shall in any manner use this organization for partisan purposes, and no discussion of partisan questions shall be permitted at any of its meetings, nor shall any nomination for political office be made.

Auld Lang Syne.

Shall we forget those far off days,
Which made us comrades all ?
Shall we forget how swift the feet
That ran at duty's call ?
Shall we forget the honored dead
That sleep beneath the sod,
Who gave their lives for liberty,
Our country, and our God ?

No, here we pledge Fraternity
With every human life
That sang the song of vict'ry won,
Or fell amid the strife;
And when at last we answer here,
As death each name shall call,
We'll leave these ranks with Charity
And Loyalty to all.
